Aaron’s Hair, Robert Munsch

LESSON

- Using the alphabet sheet, ask the class to help you spell out your name using the Gurumukhi letters. Next have the class help you add the phonetic sounds
- Provide the tracing paper and copied sheets of the Gurumukhi alphabet and sounds to have students sound out and create their own names in Gurumukhi.
- Alternatively, you can also seek out the magnet Gurumukhi alphabets on a cookie sheet, if that’s an option
- Next, students can write out their name in English and explore similarities and differences in characters.
- Students can count their name’s characters in English and Gurumukhi. Which one has more characters? How many more?

EXTENSION

Students can try and write out other familiar words or, words that relate to another subject/unit
